

This copy was written for placement in specialized trade publications for Historic Fort York

Dedication of Colours

Saturday & Sunday, June 5 & 6 – 2 p.m.

Join the men and women of the recreated United Empire Loyalist regiment, the King's Royal Yorkers, and their fellow units of the Northern Brigade of the American Revolutionary War (1775-84) at Historic Fort York for the dedication ceremony of a new set of Colours. Sir Colpoys Guy Johnson, 8th Baronet of New York, the direct descendant of Brigadier-General Sir John Johnson who founded and commanded the original regiment will present the Colours.

A brigade March Past and a brief Field Day illustrating the tactics of the 18th Century will follow the ceremony.

A reception for our honoured guests and the officers and ladies of the regiments on parade will be held in the Blue Barracks from 3:15 to 5pm, after the lodging of the Colours and dismissal of the troops.

Please RSVP

- Phone: 905-833-6435 • Fax: 905-833-3552 • Email: gk.watt@sympatico.ca • Post: King's Royal Yorkers, 85 Fog Road, King City, ON L7B 1A3