

This article originally appeared in the Kanata Courier-Standard November 11, 1994.

Casino night proceeds to go to the Community Resource Centre

By Krista Cooney

Staff reporter

Gambling in Kanata? Why not?

Saturday, November 19 from 9 p.m. to midnight, Rick's Pizza and Pasta Place, 329 March Road is holding a casino night for charity. All proceeds will go to the Community Resource Centre of Goulbourn, Kanata and West Carleton.

The admission fee of $10 gets you free pizza as well as Black Jack and Wheel of Fortune tables. All of the chips are redeemable for cash.

The door prize is a 486 computer valued at $2,000 courtesy of R & H PC's.

The tickets, which must be purchased in advance, are available at the Community Resource Centre or at Rick's Pizza and Pasta.

To participate you must be of age 18 and over. For information call 591-3686.